General Terms & Conditions

3. Where the Single Limit of Liability Option and Scheduled Retentions Option has been selected:

7. Retentions
 - a. Subject to paragraph b. below, the Insurer's obligation to pay Loss is in excess of any applicable retentions. The Insurer will have no obligation to pay all or any portion of any applicable retention. Should the Insurer, in its sole discretion, pay any retention, then the Named Company shall have the obligation to reimburse the Insurer for such amounts.
 - b. No retention applies with respect to any Claim against any Insured Persons if the Named Company, any Subsidiary and/or any Plan are not permitted to advance Defense Costs or to indemnify such Insured Persons for Loss by reason of:
 - (i) Financial Insolvency; or
 - (ii) a good faith determination by Named Company, any Subsidiary and/or any Plan that such payment is not permitted under the broadest construction of applicable law.

If Named Company, any Subsidiary and/or any Plan fail to pay the retention applicable to any such Claim for any reason other than (i) or (ii) above, then the Insurer on behalf of the Insured Persons shall advance Defense Costs and pay Loss without regard to such retention, but Named Company, any Subsidiary and/or any Plan further agree that they shall reimburse the Insurer for such amounts up to and including the applicable retention.

Alternatively the Insurer may, at its option, give its written consent to the defense of any such Claim by the Named Company Insureds. This reduction in our limit of liability for such Claim does not apply to a settlement or compromise proposed by a mediator pursuant to paragraph b. below but rejected by the Named Company.

b. Mediation

If, prior to institution of arbitration proceedings or service of suit or within 60 days of the institution of such proceedings or service of suit, the Insurer and the Named Company agree to use a process of non binding intervention by a neutral third party to resolve any Claim reported to the Insurer, and if such Claim is resolved through such process, the Insurer will reduce the retention applicable to such claim by fifty percent or ten thousand dollars ($10,000.00), whichever is less.

3. Cooperation of Named Company Insureds

The Named Company Insureds shall not admit liability, consent to any judgment, agree to any settlement or make any settlement offer without the Insurer's prior written consent, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld. No coverage is provided for fees and expenses incurred prior to the time such notice results in a Claim.
- 3. Any notice to the Insurer pursuant to subsections 1 or 2 above shall designate the Coverage Parts under which the notice is being given and shall be treated as notice under only the Coverage Parts so designated.
 - 4. Except as provided in 2 above, a Claim shall be deemed made:

 - b. in the case of an investigation, on the earliest of the date of service upon or other receipt by the Insured Person of a written notice or subpoena from the investigating authority identifying such Insured Person as an individual against whom a formal proceeding may be commenced;
 - c. in the case of a written demand for monetary damages or non-monetary relief, on the Named Company Insureds' receipt of such written demand.

 - a. the date on which the earliest such Claim was first made, or
 - b. the first date valid notice was given by the Named Company Insureds to the Insurer under this Policy of any Wrongful Act or under any prior policy of any Wrongful Act or any fact, circumstance, situation, event or transaction which underlies any such Claim.

POLICYHOLDER NOTICE

Ethics and proper business conduct has been the cornerstone of CNA since 1897. While much has changed during the last century, our commitment to these core values has not wavered. We strongly believe that proper business conduct is more than the practice of avoiding wrong; it is also a matter of choosing to do right. Nowhere is this more essential than helping in the fight against terrorism. As such, we are committed to complying with U.S. Department of Treasury Office of Foreign Asset Control (OFAC) requirements.

Through a variety of laws, OFAC administers and enforces economic sanctions against countries and groups of individuals, such as terrorists and narcotics traffickers. These laws prohibit all United States citizens (including corporations and other entities) and permanent residents from engaging in transactions with sanctioned countries and with individuals and entities on the Specially Designated Nationals (SDN) list. Because all U.S. citizens and companies are subject to this law, we wanted to be sure you were aware of its scope and restrictions. If you haven't already done so, you may want to consider discussing this issue with your legal counsel to ensure you are in compliance.

For insurance companies, accepting premium from, issuing a policy to, insuring property of, or making a claim payment to an individual or entity that is the subject of U.S.-imposed economic sanctions or trade embargoes usually are violations of these laws and regulations. Fines for violating OFAC requirements can be substantial. CNA has established an OFAC compliance program part which includes the use of exclusionary policy language. We believe this makes good business sense for CNA and you.

Our records indicate that you have insurance coverage coming up for renewal with us. The purpose of this letter is to advise you that your renewal policy includes OFAC exclusionary policy language, which may reduce or eliminate certain coverage. Specifically, if it is determined that your policy violates certain Federal or State laws or regulations, such as the U.S. list of Specially Designated Nationals or Blocked Persons (organizations or individuals associated with terrorist groups), any term or condition of your policy will be null and void to the extent it violates the applicable laws or regulations of the United States.

We're sure you share our commitment to compliance and thank you for your cooperation.
